Week ending 2nd February 2018

Be respectful Be ready Be resilient Be responsible Be resourceful Be reflective Be remarkable

This week we have had a special week called Kindness Week. This Morning (ITV) have been running a campaign to help children think about the importance of being kind to each other. Each class have carried out different activities linked to kindness anti-bullying, including e-safety. The children have made hands of kindness, kindness paper chains, made kindness pledges and in assembly agreed that they can do the following to be kind:

- ◆ Be helpful
- ◆ Cheer people up
- ◆ Make people laugh
- ◆ Let people join in
- ◆ Have kind hands
- ◆ Consider other people's feelings
- ◆ Be polite— say please and thank you
- ◆ Share
- ◆ Treat people how you would want to be treated

A lovely week—thank you everyone.

Please have a look at our Bocking is kind display in the main corridor.

We would like to invite you to join your child/children in their learning after half term.

Parents Forum

Don't forget next Thursday (8th Feb) we will be holding our Parents Forum at 2:30pm.

Our attendance officer will be speaking about our attendance procedures and we would also like to discuss your views on homework.

If you have other agenda items, please leave them in the office.

We look forward to seeing you.

Sharon McCormick Drop In

Sharon will be in school on Thursday 8th February 2018 . Please do drop in if you have anything you would like to discuss.

100% Attendance and Punctuality

Unfortunately there were no classes with 100% attendance or punctuality this week. We look forward to seeing who can reach this next week.

Mr Harrington has been appointed as our new Caretaker. He will join us from Monday, working with Mr Beswick next week.
