

The Bocking Homework Generator

Powering Independent Learning

Sail - Ometer

English	Maths	Topic
Write a newspaper report about a famous fairytale. It could be about Jack finding the beans, the Prince trying to find Cinderella. Make it informative but try and think of a catchy headline.	Create 5 word problems about perimeter and area.	Research the 10 Guru's of Sikhism and create a fact file about each one. Can you include pictures? If you are doing it digitally can you change the font and colours?
Create a leaflet about the different types of adverbials. Why not add sentences with examples of the adverbials being used.	Go around your house and measure 5 objects. Write their length in cm's and mm's	Count to 20 in French. You might make a poster of what the numbers are in French and English. Challenge: Find out how to introduce yourself to someone in French.
Choose one of the Spelling games to practice 5 of your spellings. You can practice your spellings anywhere, even in the car, on the way to school!	Visit deepening understanding and complete the rounding the nearest 10 task. Challenge: have a go at rounding numbers to the nearest 10,100 and 1000.	Design your own settlement. This could be a drawing or a physical village. Think about the features you find in hamlets, villages, towns, cities What would your dream settlement have?
Draw a picture of one the main characters from our story: The Creakers. Can you label them with adjectives to describe their personality and appearance?	Visit deepening understanding and complete the Negative numbers task. Challenge: Where would you find negative numbers in real life?	Take pictures of things around the house or in nature. Have a go at experimenting with zoom, angles and exposure. Challenge: Find out about artist Andy Goldsworthy and have a go at recreating some of his nature artwork.