Week ending 31st January 2020

Be respectful Be ready Be resilient Be responsible Be resourceful Be reflective Be remarkable

Another busy week in school has flown by, our Key Stage 2 Athletics team represented the school this week in an indoor tournament at Ramsey Academy in Halstead, where they came fifth overall.

On Wednesday our Year 5 parents joined us in the afternoon to find out more about this years Kingwood trip in October.

Welcome to Esme who has joined Year 5 Badgers this week.

Next Tuesday representatives from 'Mad Science' will take our assembly.

On Monday our new caretaker Mr Bass will start at Bocking School. Thank you to Mrs Greenslade, Mr Champney and Mr Rennie who have provided cover in recent months.

11 PLUS
& ENTRANCE
EXAMS

For children currently in Year 5, registration for the 11+ examination for the Consortium of Selective Schools in Essex will be open from 19th May to 1st July inclusive. For further information please visit: www.csse.org.uk

Governor News

This week Mr Sherry visited to carry out a Health and Safety audit, Mrs Weeks came into school to review pupil progress and the General Purpose committee met on Tuesday evening.

Congratulations to our assistant cook

Miss Sprawling and her family on the arrival of her son Jack.

COME DINE
WITH ME

Mrs Cannon will be inviting parents to come into school to have a school dinner with their children during March. Letters with more details will go out with the children next week.

A reminder that we do not allow nuts into school due to children who have allergies.

Please ensure that no products containing nuts are used in lunchboxes, for example peanut butter and Nutella etc.
