Week ending 9th November 2018

Be respectful Be ready Be resilient Be responsible Be resourceful Be reflective Be remarkable

This week the children have been commemorating the centenary of the ending of WW 1. We have had a week of focused afternoons learning about remembrance and the significance of Remembrance Day. The learning and children's interest this week has been outstanding.

I had the honour of joining year 5 and 6 who took part in a dance performance with other Braintree schools. The children did really well and created a very moving performance.

The whole school have also all decorated a jar which will be placed at the church for a special display on Saturday.

We ended our week with a silence around poppies which we had all made.

TLC's

We look forward to seeing you at our TLC's next week. These are an opportunity to discuss your children's learning with both your child and class teacher. The children's books will be available to look at in the hall. Please ensure that you are waiting outside the classroom for your appointment, to help ensure the appointments run to time.

Following feedback from a Parent Forum, this term you will be given a report from the class teacher that shows whether your child is working below/ at or above age related expectation. It will also identify targets that your child needs to work on. We hope these will be useful to you.

You are invited to visit St Marys Church on Saturday between 5pm and 7pm to see the display of jars which will be lit and have been made by members of the Bocking Community. The church will also be open ; everyone is welcome.

Don't forget we have non pupil day on Monday 12th November. See you on Tuesday!
