Week ending 8th March 2019

Be respectful Be ready Be resilient Be responsible Be resourceful Be reflective Be remarkable

It was fantastic to see the children dressed up today as their favourite book character. We enjoyed a dress up parade this morning in assembly.

Year 5 enjoyed a visit to the Cambridge Science Centre and the Fitzwilliam museum this week.

Today we have said goodbye and good luck to Mrs Morgan who is taking on a new role in a private school.

It was lovely to see so many of you at our TLC's this week. We hope you enjoyed finding out about your child/children's learning.

Come Dine with Me

Mrs Cannon is inviting parents/ grandparents to join their children for lunch in school. Younger siblings are also welcome. The cost is £3 per adult and £1.50 per sibling, payable via cash/ cheque through the school office.

COME DINE WITH ME

Next Friday we will be raising funds for Comic Relief. Our theme this year will be "Mad Hair Day".

We look forward to seeing lots of wonderful creations.

Drop in with home school liaison worker

Sharon McCormick will be available for her drop in next Thursday (14th) from 8:30am. Please call in if you would like to talk anything over with her.

BOOK FAIR

The Book Fair will be open in the school hall on Monday 11th to Wednesday 13th March from 3.05pm to 3.30pm.

Remember to bring your World Book Day £1 token to get £1 off any books you buy!

For all the books you buy at the book fair, we get free books for school so why not treat yourself to a new read!
